

OUT AND ABOUT

HAWK CONSERVANCY TRUST

Meet the Burrowers VIP Encounter
we are invited into the aviary where the owls will fly, hover, walk and run around us. These cute and curious owls will delight as they show off their unusual burrowing behaviour, diving in and out of their tunnels. We will get a great view as they land and hop between us, they may even use us as a perch!

When- Saturday 13TH June

Where- Kate and will meet you at Bracknell train station at 9.30am and drive to The Hawk Conservancy Trust in Andover. We shall return to Bracknell train station at 6.15pm for drop off

Cost- £65 (this includes transport, entry to the venue and 'meet the Burrowers' VIP experience)

You will need to purchase your own lunch or bring a packed lunch with you

Set within 22-acres of stunning countryside, the Hawk Conservancy Trust is an award-winning visitor attraction and offers a full day of flying displays and activities

We shall also be taking part in a 'Meet the burrowers' VIP encounter!

To book your space and make payment you can :

Call The Ark 01344 266899

Email Kate kate@theark.org.uk

This trip is aimed at people who do not need one-to-one support in the community. If you would like to discuss this, please contact the office

